Acceptance of minutes by Nicole Rodriguez, seconded by Maximus Coolbaugh.

5. Public Forum

Vice President of Student Facilities: Met with Dean Victoria Miller and Nicole to discuss immigration services.

Taylor: During signature collection, many students complained about others on campus asking for signatures.

Students cannot be harassed, but those asking for signatures are allowed.

Victoria: Two years ago, a hydration station was installed after speaking with the Vice President of Student Facilities.

Maximus: Students want more chairs and more shade in the quad.

Many trees did not grow properly, but pop-up shades could be an option. Other options will be considered for safe shade solutions.

Victoria: A tape measure is needed for Student Affairs.

6. Reports

Jeremiah: 28 days until the last meeting. May 7th new senators will be announced.

Cornor: Black Student Success Week. Will be speaking tomorrow from 12:30-1:20.

Ramiah: Umoja kickback yesterday, great turnout.

Omar: This will be his last meeting with AS.

Alina: As the delegate for SSSCC, she would like to host a discussion about SSSCC.

Leenoy: Shared experiences at the Presidents Panel.

Maximus: Asks other senators to join him to help with the AS collage tomorrow from 2-3.

Nicole: Met with Jacqueline and Vicky to discuss immigration legal resources for students. Put up flyers with QR codes for services.

Sage: Will be updating the Pride Center to provide services for immigration resources. SD Board of Directors has approved that the San Diego Film Initiative will not be gutted.

Jahnae: Elections will be April 27th to May 2nd. Opens at 10 a.m., closes Saturday, May 2nd at 11:59 p.m. Notifications will only be sent to SDCCD email.

Victoria: Next Wednesday is the scholarship ceremony. Student Affairs is looking for federal work-study students. Students could begin work in the summer. Tomorrow is the transfer fair in the quad. During the President's Cabinet, Leenoy did a great job speaking on her experience as a Jewish student. Thanked Leenoy for being there. Thanked Tonya for discussing immigration services at the President's Cabinet meeting.

Jeremiah: Will not be at next week's meeting.
